

Support for Students

At APAC, we're committed to providing a supportive and inclusive environment to help you thrive in your studies and beyond. Whether you need academic assistance, wellbeing support, or career guidance, our range of student services ensures you have the resources to succeed. For more detailed information about support at APAC, please refer to the Student Support Policy and Procedure.

Enrolment Support

Navigating enrolment can be complex, but our dedicated team is here to help. Whether you're a new or continuing student, we provide guidance on course selection, advanced standing information and advice, orientation, FEE-HELP information and census date advice, changes to your enrolment, and administrative requirements to make your student journey at APAC seamless. For assistance contact admissions@apac.edu.au or speak to our Student Services team.

Mental Health and Wellbeing Support

Your wellbeing is our priority. Access confidential counselling, mental health resources, and wellbeing initiatives designed to help you manage stress, maintain balance, and stay focused on your studies. APAC students have access to on-campus free counselling and well-being support through a qualified psychologist. Students also have access to the Student Assistance Program, a 24 hour face-to-face or online counselling service delivered by AccessEAP. Students receive up to three hours of free counselling per academic year.

Disability, Accessibility, and Inclusion

APAC is committed to creating an inclusive learning environment. Our support services ensure that students with disabilities, health conditions or accessibility needs receive reasonable adjustments and assistance required to fully engage in their studies. For more information refer to APAC's Students with a Disability Policy and Procedure and speak to our Student Services team.

First Nations Student Support

We proudly support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students with culturally safe spaces, mentoring, and resources to foster success in both academic and creative pursuits. In line with APAC's commitment to diversity, all First Nations applicants can apply for the APAC First Nations Excellence Scholarship. APAC builds connectedness by providing cultural and social interaction opportunities amongst students and staff through NAIDOC Week celebrations and Wellness and Cultural Events.

Academic Progression and English Language Support

Enhance your academic skills with tailored support, study advice, time and study management, research and referencing techniques, access to study groups and mentoring, and literacy and numeracy skills. Our goal is to help you reach your full potential in your coursework. Reach out to your Head of Discipline for more information.

Careers and Employability

Prepare for a successful career in the performing arts with guidance on industry networking, resume building, and audition and portfolio preparation. We provide tools to help you transition from study to employment in the creative industries.

As an APAC student or graduate, you'll have exclusive access to Brock Casting Services, offering casting opportunities, personalised audition feedback, and career advice.

Each year, our Spotlight on Careers Expo connects you directly with industry professionals, showcasing the diverse pathways available to performing arts graduates.

Campus Activities

At APAC, student life is about more than just study — it's about connection, wellbeing, and community. Our Student Leadership Group (SLG), together with the Student Services team, organises a range of activities throughout the year to support your personal growth and campus experience.

From wellness week each trimester to cultural food days, ping pong tournaments, movie nights, and more, there's always something happening to help you relax, recharge, and connect with others.

Student Accommodation

Finding the right place to live is an important part of your student experience, and we're here to help. Whether you're looking for independent living, share houses, or student-specific accommodation, there are a range of affordable and convenient in and around Brisbane to suit your lifestyle and budget.

Our Student Services team can provide guidance on trusted accommodation providers, tenancy support, and tips for living in Brisbane. We're here to help you settle in comfortably and make the most of your time at APAC. Links to accommodation options are available here.

International Students

Studying in a new country is an exciting journey, and we're here to support you every step of the way. APAC has a dedicated international students page providing information about cost of living, working in Australia, support services, and APAC's list of approved international education agents.
